LETTER DATED 17 FEBRUARY 1994 FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

On the instructions of my Government I have the honour to relate to you the following information to the Security Council.

After almost two weeks since the United Nations Security Council has demanded that Croatian troops be withdrawn from the Republic of Bosnia and Herzegovina, it is our Government's information that this withdrawal has not been accomplished.

We await the requested report of the Secretary-General regarding UNPROFOR's most recent information with respect to the mandated withdrawal.

May I ask, Excellency, for your kind assistance in circulating this letter as a document of the Security Council.
